The award-winning design firm of Baker Design Group provides a range of outstanding commercial and residential decorating and design services to the DFW, Houston and Austin areas. Under the direction of owner and principle designer Linda Baker, the design team applies sensible, functional and innovative methods to their trade resulting in sophisticated styles that truly withstand the test of time.

Baker Design Group demonstrated their highly regarded skill set when they unveiled the newly renovated Rangers Executive Suite for client, Nix Patterson and Roach, in time to open the 2011 baseball season! Designers of the firm combined old and new legends in the original custom art pieces mixing comfort with beauty while integrating style and pride. The dramatic expressions incorporated while preparing a celebrity oasis with Hollywood appeal at the Ritz-Carlton suite for Super Bowl XLV made for a glamorous weekend for all the celebrity attendees. Baker Design Group also served up a relaxing and lush environment for urban dwellers at the popular Frisco Bar; but for a more intimate setting, this team also designs and creates dazzling residential bar and media rooms from the ground up. Delivering the ideal nursery every mom-to-be dreams of sharing with their newborn; sensible attention is paid to create a room that can easily translate from an early story book life into a creative design that will grow with your child. Adults won’t feel left out as this team knows how to deliver a master suite, the perfect place to escape from a hectic day.

From office to homes; retail locations to commercial facilities and entertainment headquarters, Baker Design Group has built a solid reputation for consistently delivering phenomenal designs from concept to completion. Whether your style is clean, modern, transitional, or traditional, the firm’s passion to transform your space will translate into the sense of luxury and functionality you desire.
